Reading file: use the ordinary prayer-guide PDF if you want a simple on-screen or home-printed copy.

Fold-and-print file: print at actual size on Letter paper, two-sided, flipping on the short edge. Fold the sheets together after printing.

Test one sheet first, since printer settings vary. Keep scaling off unless your printer requires a printable-area adjustment.

This guide is free to use. If a fuller printed edition is prepared later, Novena Regina should keep the prayers available free online.

The Chaplet of Saint Michael

A complete companion for the feast of Saint Michael and the Holy Angels

This booklet gathers the order of the chaplet, all nine salutations, the common prayers, the concluding prayers, a feast-day preparation note, and source cautions for public use.

The chaplet is also called the Rosary of the Angels because it honors Saint Michael together with the nine choirs of angels.

For the feast

September 29 is the Dedication of Saint Michael the Archangel in the 1962 Roman calendar, I class, with white vestments.

A simple preparation is to pray the chaplet, add the Prayer to Saint Michael, and ask for fidelity, protection, humility, and perseverance in grace.

The nine-day novena may be prayed from September 20 through September 28. The chaplet itself may be prayed on the feast day or at any other fitting time.

The longer devotion called Saint Michael Lent runs from August 15 through September 29. Novena Regina presents it as a voluntary devotional aid, not as a fasting rule or obligation.

Source note

Source note

This guide follows the commonly printed English order of the Chaplet of Saint Michael. It does not present historical indulgences or private promises as current grants.

The order of prayer was checked against contemporary Catholic devotional witnesses, including EWTN, The Chaplet of St. Michael the Archangel. Older printed-source verification remains a separate editorial task before any paid booklet or formal book edition is promoted.

The Prayer to Saint Michael on Novena Regina is separately sourced in With God: A Book of Prayers and Reflections, Benziger Brothers, 1911, page 313.

Feast-day prayer plan

Morning: pray the Prayer to Saint Michael and ask for protection in the duties of the day.

During the day: pray one salutation or one decade-like group if you cannot pray the full chaplet at once.

Evening: pray the full chaplet, or finish any remaining salutations slowly and without haste.

For families: one person may read the salutations while others answer with the Our Father and Hail Marys.

How to pray

1. Begin

Make the Sign of the Cross. Pray “O God, come to my assistance,” the response, and one Glory Be.

2. Pray the salutations

For each choir of angels, read the salutation, then pray one Our Father and three Hail Marys.

3. Continue through all nine choirs

Move through Seraphim, Cherubim, Thrones, Dominions, Virtues, Powers, Principalities, Archangels, and Angels.

4. Pray four Our Fathers

Pray one Our Father for Saint Michael, one for Saint Gabriel, one for Saint Raphael, and one for the Guardian Angel.

5. Conclude

Finish with the prayer to Saint Michael and the closing collect printed in this guide.

1 Our Father

3 Hail Marys

One group of beads for one salutation. Bead arrangements can vary, so follow the prayer count rather than the exact look of a chaplet.

The chaplet at a glance

Opening: Sign of the Cross, O God come to my assistance, the response, and one Glory Be.
